Rumania Reported Trying to Obtain Pledge From Turkey

ROME CLAIMS BRITISH PARACHUTISTS FOILED; GREEKS GAIN GROUND

BULLETINS

London, Feb. 14—(AP)—Britain announced tonight she would regard Rumania as "territory under enemy occupation," beginning Saturday

Cairo, Feb. 14—(AP)—British fliers have bombed the mole and naval harbor at Rhodes, in the Dodecanese Islands, in the third straight attack on the island, RAF headquarters announced today. The mole and harbor were attacked Wednesday night. On the previous two nights, airdrops on the Italian-fortified island were raided.

By The Associated Press

War in the air, highlighted by a reported British attempt to land parachutists in Italy, burst into intense activity today as Britain watched sparks of threatening conflict in the Orient and the Balkans.

Parachute descent of a heavily-armed British detail to the soil of southern Italy on a frustrated dynamiting mission under cover of darkness Monday night was reported by the Italian high command.

Bombs from the combined air forces of Italy and Germany rained overnight on Britain's positions from Scotland to Africa and on her ships at sea.

Britain's own bombers, fighting in two wars, swept in daylight today over German-held ports along the French coast and were said to have carried out "the heaviest and most successful bombing of the Albanian campaign" yesterday.

RAF headquarters in Athens said Albania's capital, Tirana, and the chief Italian-held Albanian port, Durazzo, as well as Tepeleni, an immediate objective of Greek troops, were attacked.

The Albanian bombers paced a Greek ground offensive in which, dispatches from the front said, the Fascists lost several positions north of Klisura, including one height of "great importance," much material and dead and wounded by the hundreds.

The British said their daylight raids across the channel were unopposed, except for one clash with Nazi fighter planes, in which a Messerschmitt was shot down, but German sources in Berlin reported that nine British spitfires were felled.

Some optimism was reflected among cabinet ministers and military leaders in Australia as the situation which Acting Prime Minister A. W. Fadden yesterday called of "the utmost gravity" showed no further deterioration.

But in southeastern Europe, both Britain and Turkey showed how gravely Germany's military infiltration is regarded. The British, having broken diplomatic relations with Rumania, today banned commerce with her under the "trading with the enemy act."

In Istanbul, the government-controlled Turkish press declared Turkey was ready to fight because "we cannot be disinterested when a foreign army passes into Bulgaria."

Reports from Greece reaching Yugoslavia said that the government, apparently in fear of German invasion, had called up "several additional classes of reservists."

From Bengasi, Libya, came a delayed dispatch reporting the dropping of powerful explosives, apparently land mines, by parachutes from raiding Nazi warplanes.

In an attempt to blow up a communications line and a waterworks, the Italian communique said, that the British were rounded up "before they could do any serious damage," but that two Italians were killed in a "clash"

ROME REPORTS DEATH OF ARMY COMMANDER

Rome, Feb. 14—(AP)—An official announcement reported today that General Giuseppe Tellera, commander of the Italian 10th army, had died "heroically" in fighting in the Bengasi zone in northern Libya.

(The British reported earlier this week that General Tellera had died of wounds after being captured near Bengasi.)

The announcement said Tellera was wounded seriously in combat while directing the action of his troops. Because of his wounds the Italians said, he was too weak to be moved and fell into British hands, dying a few hours later.

NERVOUSNESS IS INCREASING IN PHILIPPINES

Americans Seeking Passage Homeward In Increasing Numbers in Wake of Developments Which Include Return of Dutch Ship

GRAVE INFORMATION

Manila, Feb. 14—(AP)—War nervousness grew in the Philippines today with Americans seeking passage homeward in increased numbers in the wake of developments which included the sudden return of a Dutch ship to the safety of a neutral harbor and orders cancelling the return of army officers to the United States.

Steamship companies reported they were not having trouble handling first class bookings, but tourist classes were booked full for several months in advance.

Other events bringing fresh anxiety to this American possession lying within the fringe of the oriental trouble zone included:

1. The State Department's renewed advice to Americans to leave the Orient.

2. An earlier than planned movement homeward from Manila of wives and children of United States army officers.

3. The warning given at Sydney, Australia, by A. W. Fadden, deputy prime minister, that "grave advices" had been received concerning the situation in the Pacific.

The Dutch merchant ship Tjitjalegka was enroute to Hongkong when the ship's agency at Batavia flashed orders, without explanation, the captain said, to "return to Manila immediately and wait for further orders."

Some of the ship's passengers declared presence of Japanese ships in the China sea caused the vessel to seek a neutral haven.

A second Dutch ship three days out of Manila for United States also was reported to have received orders to return, but there was no official explanation in either case. Dr. W. Huender, the Dutch East Indies consul-general denied, however, that there had been a general order for Dutch ships to steam for neutral harbors.

High United States army officers admitted that certain officers

AID BILL BACKERS CONFIDENT

Certain That Clear-Cut Victory for the Measure is As Good As Won, Several Administration Leaders Suggest Senate Might Make Final Change to "Promote National Unity" and Meet Willkie's Proposal

TO GO TO THE FLOOR FOR DEBATE MONDAY

Washington, Feb. 14—(AP)—Senator Wiley (R-Wis) suggested today that the senate hold a "closed executive session" next week to receive from Secretary Hull and his assistants "a report on world conditions."

Wiley told the Senate that there should be a "realistic appraisal of our whole American-British relations" in connection with the forthcoming debate on the administration's aid-to-Britain bill.

Hull and his assistants, the senator said, should attend the proposed executive senate session, and their outline of world conditions should have especial reference to the near and far east.

Earlier in the day the Senate military affairs committee voted to call Gen. George C. Marshall, army chief of staff, before it for an expression of his personal opinion on what effect aid to Britain has on American defense.

Washington, Feb. 14—(AP)—Confident that a clear-cut victory for the British aid-bill is as good as won, several administration leaders suggested today that the Senate might make one final change in the measure to "promote national unity" and meet "half way" Wendell L. Willkie's proposal that immediate help be confined to Britain, China and Greece.

The wisdom of the suggestion, however, was questioned at once by one group of the bill's supporters who argued that such a limitation might have an undesirable

AUSTRALIA WAR CABINET HOLDS A CONFERENCE

Sydney, Australia, Feb. 14—(AP)—The Australian war cabinet consulted with the chiefs of staff in an urgent meeting today following yesterday's official declaration that the war had entered a state of the "utmost gravity."

Latest information from overseas, which informed sources said "disclosed no further deterioration in the situation," was reviewed.

Acting Prime Minister A. W. Fadden issued a statement which said:

"The war cabinet received reports on the progress of the Australian defense program which were discussed in the light of the most recent cables about the international situation.

"The people of the commonwealth may rest assured that the warnings issued were regarded as necessary so that everyone might be seized with the need for placing the nation's interests first. It is well for me to say that, as in the last war, Australians can and will face any crisis calmly and with deliberate purpose."

Air Chief Marshal Sir Robert Brooke-Popham, Britain's Far-Eastern commander stationed at Singapore was among those sum-

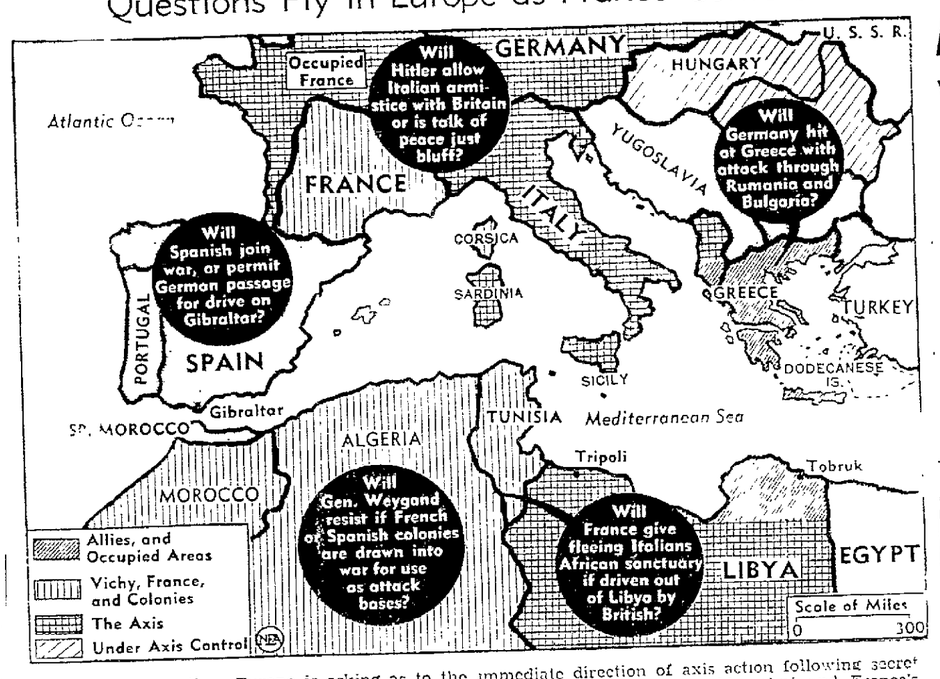
Questions Fly in Europe as Franco Confers



Here are the questions Europe is asking as to the immediate direction of axis action following secret conferences of Spain's Generalissimo Francisco Franco with Italy's Premier Mussolini and France's Marshal Petain.

AWAITING YUGOSLAV DECISION

Countries in Southeastern Europe Eagerly Watch Portentous Conference Today Between Representatives of Germany and Balkan State, With Berlin Officials Maintaining Silence Regarding Arrival of Premier

HINTED KING BORIS MAY ALSO SEE HITLER

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Feb. 14—Germany was reported today to be pressing Yugoslavia to open to gray-clad Nazi divisions packed along the Danube river the historic Vardar river road of conquest to Greece and the eastern Mediterranean.

Diplomatic quarters said they had received reports that Germany wants the Yugoslav route in addition to unopposed passage through Bulgaria so her troops could reach as many points as possible in Greece and the Mediterranean sector. These quarters expressed belief the Bulgarian route already was assured.

Southeastern Europe waited tensely for the result of a portentous conference today in Germany between Yugoslavia's premier, Dragisa Cvetkovic, and foreign minister, Aleksander Cincar-Markovic, and Nazi leaders, including Adolf Hitler.

(At Berlin, German officials maintained silence when asked to comment on foreign reports that Yugoslav government representatives had arrived in the Reich to confer with Nazi officials.

A spokesman said he would not deny that conversations were under way, but added:

"You must remember that we are waging war and it is an obligation of courtesy and prudence that we make no disclosure which conceivably could make friendly visitors targets for the RAF."

(Another authorized source said there was no foundation for reports abroad that Greek-German

Federal Conciliator Dispatched to Lansing To Confer With Governor On Labor Dispute

Michigan Executive Asks Federal Intervention, Stating 40 Per Cent Of Company's Facilities Are For Defense Orders

ON OTHER FRONTS

By the Associated Press

A federal conciliator was dispatched to Lansing, Mich., today to confer with Governor Van Wagoner on a strike of AFL-United Automobile Workers at the Motor Wheel Corporation there.

The governor, in asking federal intervention, said 40 per cent of the company's facilities were being used on defense orders. The company is making shell casings and airplane propellors. About 2,500 employes were affected by yesterday's walkout.

In another labor dispute, which could affect transportation needs of the defense program, the National Mediation Board attempted to

FUGITIVE MAY FACE FEDERAL CHARGES FIRST

Philadelphia, Feb. 14—(AP)—Handcuffed between two detectives, Robert J. Boltz was returned from Rochester, N. Y., today to answer fraud charges in connection with an investment business in which authorities say clients lost $2,500,000.

The 54-year-old socially prominent investment counsellor, known among associates as "Honest" Bob Boltz, was arrested on a Rochester street yesterday after a 16-week search and was turned over to two Philadelphia detectives there last night.

The detectives said Boltz was handcuffed because they had received reports that U. S. marshals might meet them at the station and make an effort to take Boltz into federal custody to face federal charges first.

It was not known immediately, however, in what court Boltz would be tried.

Federal Judge George A. Welsh, who originally set bail at $100,000 if Boltz were found, said the federal action "should take precedence because there are both civil and criminal proceedings against Boltz in the U. S. district court."

Detective Captain Joseph Kearns said that Boltz was arrested on a city warrant and "our warrant has precedence over any other in this case."

Assistant District Attorney Franklin E. Barr said Boltz would not have to be arraigned since he had been indicted by a Pennsylvania grand jury on charges of embezzlement and fraudulent conversion. The state could go ahead immediately with the trial, he added.

SENATE OPENS DEBATE ON DEBT LIMIT MEASURE

Washington, Feb. 14 (AP)—Opening debate on House-approved legislation to raise the national debt limit to $65,000,000,000 senators were told today that as much as $7,000,000,000 might be available for aiding Britain with war materials.

Senator Brown (D-Mich), floor manager of the legislation, explained that there would be a $7,000,000,000 "leeway" for federal financing under the proposed increase in the debt, and quoted Secretary Morgenthau and treasury officials as his authority.

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) asked whether it could be assumed by testimony of the treasury secretary that "expenditures under the loan-lease bill would run in the neighborhood of $7,000,000,000 between now and July 1, 1942."

"The senator can draw that con-

Spanish Royalists Are Encouraged By Act Of Former King In Renouncing the Throne

Newspapers In Country Withhold Publication of Abdication Message Reported to Have Been Issued January 15

IS BELIEVED TO BE ILL

Lisbon, Portugal, Feb. 14—(AP)—Announcement that Alfonso XIII who fled the throne of Spain in 1931, had renounced his rights in favor of his son and heir, 27-year-old Prince Juan, aroused talk here today of a possible attempt soon to restore the Spanish monarchy.

Newspapers in Spain have withheld publication of the abdication message, which was reported here to have been issued Jan. 15 in Rome, but the Portuguese monarchist paper La Voz printed the full text yesterday.

As quoted by the paper, the former king wrote he was relinquishing his claim to the throne because "in reorganizing the country politically" it was "necessary that the way be made open and clear so that at an opportune mo-

CREDENTIALS OF NEW JAP ENVOY ARE PRESENTED

Washington, Feb. 14 (AP)—President Roosevelt took note of the serious strain in American-Japanese relations in receiving the new Japanese ambassador today and welcomed the envoy's assurance that he was resolved to achieve "a better understanding" and thereby preserve "the peace of the Pacific."

The ambassador, Admiral Kichisaburo Nomura, who knew Mr. Roosevelt during World War days, went to the White House to present his credentials. Secretary of State Hull accompanied him.

In the exchange of remarks released later by the State Department, the new ambassador told the president that "the recent developments in Japanese-American relations have unfortunately been such as to cause considerable concern on both sides of the ocean."

"It is needed now, more than ever," the ambassador said, "to bring about a better understanding of each other's position in order to secure the interests and well-being of our two nations, thereby preserving the peace of the Pacific and maintaining the traditional friendship between us."

President Roosevelt, replying said:

"There are, as you have stated, developments in the relations between the United States and Japan which cause concern.

"I welcome your assurance that in the interests of the traditional friendship between our two coun-

SEEK TO EXTEND W. P. A. SEWING

Washington, Feb. 14 (AP)—State Representative William A. Shaw of Pennsylvania said today he would file a request for an extension of the Work Projects Administration statewide sewing program at the office of the state's WPA administrator here tomorrow. The project is scheduled to close February 19 because the W. P. A. and the state have been unable to agree on the sponsor's contribution.

Harrisburg, Feb. 14 (AP)—A two-weeks extension of 12,000 W. P. A. sewing jobs scheduled to end next Wednesday because of a controversy between Governor James and state WPA officials was sought in Washington today by Rep. William A. Shaw (D-Allegheny).

SEVEN DEAD IN ILLINOIS BLAST

Du Quoin, Ill., Feb. 14—(AP)—A terrific blast killed seven men and leveled the liquid oxygen plant of the United Electric Mine of the Fidelity Coal Company about five miles west of Du Quoin today.

"We don't know what caused it," a spokesman for Mine Superintendent Fred Hull said. "An investigation is being made by mine and state officials."

The dead were identified by their clothing as L. W. Barker, James Thornton, Lyle Cook, his brother, Russell, John Bailey, John Rappusi, and Nelson Todd. Barker, 62, was superintendent of the plant.

The company spokesman said the men were engaged in unloading a freight car of explosives which were being moved into the plant but there were no survivors of the blast to give details of the explosion.

Department of Health Reports Epidemic of Influenza in the State Fast Disappearing

Harrisburg, Feb. 14 (AP)—A wintertime epidemic of influenza in Pennsylvania is "petering out" and has nearly disappeared, authorities in the State Department of Health said today.

From the time the malady hit this state, coming from the far west, it brought down thousands of persons with a mild form of illness—nothing as serious as the type of influenza which scourged the world in 1917.

"It has apparently burned itself out," said Dr. J. Moore Campbell, chief of the State Bureau of Health Conservation. He said no records of the number of cases in this state were kept.

The state of Texas probably was as hard hit as any in the wave, Dr. Campbell said. There 33,000 cases were reported three weeks ago and now this is down to between 3,000 and 4,000.

California, where a number of film celebrities were stricken with influenza, felt the decline in the wave as early as late December and January.

Pennsylvania is due this year for an increase in the number of measles cases, he said. Measles arrive in quantity every three years in a regular cycle and 1938 was the last time they were noted in abundance.

At the same time Secretary of Health John J. Shaw reported that the State Health Department, through an enlarged pneumonia control program, saved 4,000 lives in Pennsylvania last year and that he expected the figure to reach 7,000 this year.

To combat the disease, Dr. Shaw said, a pneumonia control division was established with 180 stations throughout the state. Newer drugs and serums were made available at the stations on a 24-hour basis.

Recent Additions Bring Number of Men And Officers In Local Guard Unit to 108

The number of officers and men in Company I, local unit of the 112th Infantry, Pennsylvania National Guard, was increased to 108 by enlistments received yesterday and today, it was announced this afternoon.

It was stated today that there are still openings for six men in the local company to bring the strength up to the allowed 114 officers and men.

Tomorrow is the last day for receiving enlistments in the company before it is inducted into federal service on Monday morning at eight o'clock. After induction, no enlistments are permitted.

Officers of the company stated today that arrangements have been completed for obtaining meals during the 10-day period the men will be here after induction. All meals during that time will be served at Oscar's Restaurant.

Names of those who enlisted in the company yesterday and today were announced as follows: Samuel Bowers, Frank Cervola, Arthur Devore, Kenneth Dunn, Raymond Geer, Fred Hultberg, Frederick Swanson, Lloyd Passinger, William Maddigan, and Albert Jackson.

LATIN AMERICA IS SUBJECT OF INSTITUTE TALK

Warren Rotary's Institute of Understanding came to a close last night when Dr. Richard Behrendt spoke at the high school on "Social Conditions in the Western Hemisphere." His address was the last in a series of four intended to give the people of Warren an insight into current world conditions. Dr. Behrendt studied as director for social and economic research in Panama, giving him a rich background for his subject.

Introduced by H. L. Blair, Dr. Behrendt surprised his audience by telling them of the great lack of mutual understanding between the American people and those in the Latin American republics. This has been brought about by the business and diplomatic relations that has ignored the Latin American culture and manner of living. Citizens of the United States and Latin America are thought to be interested only in their own business welfare and exploitation of natural resources.

Picturing the squalor and suffering that exists outside of the large cities where many people are still bare-footed, illiterate and have no knowledge of modern sanity methods, the people have come to lose faith in the wisdom of democratic government, and are therefore inclined to turn to dictatorships for salvation. The United States must circumvent this feeling in order to create better understanding so necessary to adequate defense of the western hemisphere.

South America must be helped economically, too, for seventy-five percent of its foreign market, all European, has disappeared since the outbreak of the war and the United States has not been a large consumer of South American products. Our greatest help according to the speaker will be to aid the Latin American country in making and growing products suitable for consumption in the United States.

THE NEW MARCH OF TIME PRESENTS "UNCLE SAM—THE NON-BELLIGERENT"

At The Library Theatre Today And Saturday

Uncensored German Army films revealing conditions inside Nazi-dominated Europe today are included in the latest March of Time, "Uncle Sam—The Non-Belligerent," opens today and Saturday at the Library theatre.

This special issue of The March of Time, which presents a comprehensive picture of the grave problems facing the U. S. people in the matter of giving aid to Britain, includes many scenes from the weekly Nazi newsreels, Deutsche Wochenschau, intended for showing in South America only.

The uncensored German film was seized by British contraband control officers and was later obtained from the Canadian Film Commissioner for exclusive use by The March of Time. As used in "Uncle Sam - The Non-Belligerent," the Nazi film carries a meaning that is entirely different from that originally intended by the German Propaganda Ministry, which has eagerly sought to frighten South American countries away from participation in U. S. hemisphere defense plans.

Graduates of Pilot Training Here Receive Diplomas Next Monday

Nine local young men and one girl who recently completed their flight training in the Civilian Pilot Training course at the Warren Airport under the program of the Civil Aeronautics Administration, will be presented diplomas on the stage of the Library theatre here next Monday evening at nine o'clock, it was announced today by William E. Yeager, president of the Warren Chamber of Commerce, which sponsored the course.

The presentation will follow a dinner at the Carver Hotel at 6:30 o'clock at which the students and their instructors will be guests. The management of the theatre will entertain the entire group following the dinner to see the picture, "Flight Command."

Commenting on the group which completed the training course, Mr. Yeager said that "the young folks, through their application to their work and their ambition to excell, reflect much credit on the community."

"The directors of the Chamber of Commerce are gratified that so many took advantage of the opportunity offered to them," he said. "Fifty took the ground training and the ten having the highest grades received flight training. Two of the latter are now eligible to continued training under government supervision."

Mr. Yeager spoke in highest terms of the instructors in charge of the students, these being members of the staff of the King Air Service at the Warren Airport.

"The excellence of the instruction given our young folks has impressed the officials in charge of the non-college Civilian Pilot Training program, and we are informed that Warren will be listed for another training period."

In connection with the showing of the picture, "Flight Command," the King Air Service has set up a display in the lobby of the Library theatre.

V. S. King, manager of the Warren Airport, has announced that a classroom has been set up at the Jefferson street school in preparation for the next ground school course under the CPT program. Equipment includes an airplane fuselage, motors, wings and other equipment for instructing students. He stated that early approval of the new course here is expected.

It is estimated by traffic authorities that on every school day 86,099 school buses transport 3,388,645 school children to 36,366 schools in the United States.

PAIR NARROWLY ESCAPE INJURY IN AUTO CRASH

Sheffield Feb 14—Two Brockport young men escaped serious injury and possible cremation here late last evening when the car in which they were riding crashed against a parked car, rolled and skidded about 100 feet into another parked car and caught fire

The men were Bernard Brenton, 29, and John Town Jr 23 who were removed to the Warren General Hospital and today were discharged from the institution after receiving treatment for their injuries, which consisted of bruises and shock

The crash occurred about 10 20 o'clock, on West Main street near Dunham Brenton operating a Plymouth two-door sedan and his companion were proceeding west on Main street when their car clipped a Chevrolet coach parked on the right berm a few feet east of Dunham street The impact sent the Plymouth careening and it rolled and skidded on up the pavement and into the rear of another car, a Plymouth sedan parked on the right a few feet west of the intersection

Brenton's car which finally stopped was lying on its left side Flames were shooting from beneath the hood but a group of men who had rushed to the scene, among them Milton Munn organist at nearby Forest View Rink and Everett Abrahson righted the car and removed the dazed occupants, braving the fire in doing so

The blaze was extinguished by the Sheffield fire department which made a fast run to the scene

Brenton and Town were taken into the George Morley residence nearby, given first aid by a local physician, and then removed to the hospital in the Borden ambulance

Brenton's car was damaged to the extent of several hundred dollars The first car it hit, a Chevrolet registered in the name of Agatha Fahey Tiona was badly damaged about the right front end The third car owned by Ivel R. Johnson, 222 Oneida avenue Warren, was only slightly damaged It had been parked at the scene by the owner's daughter Miss Ardelle Johnson who was in the roller rink when the crash occurred

The Brockport men said they were enroute to Erie

Chief of Police Sanford Secor investigated the crash

Forty Warren Retailers Participating In Streamlined Dollar Days Later in Month

Forty retailers of Warren are uniting in an effort to give the people of the community a series of bargains such as have not been offered on previous occasions and will sponsor a series of Streamlined Dollar Days on February 20th 21st and 22nd

According to the chairman of the Retail Merchandising Committee of the Chamber of Commerce the event will be well worth waiting for by those who anticipate the purchase of spring necessities for their families He says

"Each of the participating merchants will endeavor to have some one outstanding bargain in his own line of merchandise while other items will be placed on sale at prices offering decided savings to thrifty buyers

"While the list of participants has not yet been furnished the editor it is known that it contains names of business houses which have not heretofore participated in sales promotion projects This in the belief of members of the committee is taken as an indication that at last Warren merchants are realizing that sales promotion to be truly productive mut be a co-operative activity.

The publisher of the Times-Mirror says H B Pettit directing the project "is more than generous in his co-operation Through his generosity and because of the large number of participants in our effort we will be able to circularize the entire shopping district This should bring to Warren many out-of-town shoppers whose purchases in any one store will help to put into circulation money that in the course of the following week will pass through the hands and benefit many others than the merchant who first received it"

ST. VALENTINE DAY

Just why most of the younger generation, and many of the older folk as well, exchange pretty cards containing a picture of cupid along with endearing messages on Valentine day is perhaps a mystery to the average person who takes the time to remember a friend or relative on this occasion.

A well known encyclopedia is authority for the statement that February 14th formerly was believed to be the first day of birds' mating; hence the custom of youths and maidens sending humorous love-letters, caricatures, etc., possibly however, it is stated it's origination may have been connected with St. Valentine, martyred in Rome February 14, 271.

One of the typical illustrations seen on the modern valentines sent to dear friends on this date, consists of little Cupid, who is drawn as having shot the arrow which pierced two hearts, thus linked in one. Though the hearts are wounded by the sentimental shaft, they do not wish to tear themselves apart and one may hope they are forever joined.

Cupid has his tragedies as well as his victories, and his arrow may pierce completely through one heart, while the adored object of this emotion is scarcely dented. Love is said to be blind, and it seems sometimes as if Cupid had a very poor aim. If he is going to severely wound one heart, without hitting the second one also, he had better take a few lessons in marksmanship.

The human race could not get along without Cupid, but it sometimes seems as if he needed more regulating.

AN INSPIRATION FROM ENGLAND

For the helpful inspiration it may bring to local Red Cross workers we have been asked to reprint the following self-explanatory letter written by a woman in a village in Devonshire, England, where a large number of evacuees from London are being cared for during the war:

"Dear Madam:

"I am writing from Otterton, a little village in Devonshire, where we have a large number of evacuees from London.

"A short time ago a lovely parcely of woolen blankets for the babies came through a Settlement in London—six nice knitted blankets, and on them were labels marked 'from America to Britain.'

The women with small babies drew lots for the blankets, and I found one who had drawn a particularly nice one smoothing it down and saying, 'I shall keep this for years and years'.

"I feel sure that your Red Cross workers would have felt rewarded if they could have seen the pleasure they have given these poor women whose homes have in some cases been completely destroyed. They came to us with just a small bundle in their hands and often no change of clothes at all.

"Would you please give to some of your workers a message of gratitude from this little village.

"It is a very quaint little village of about 500 inhabitants and we are now housing 300 evacuees.

"What a happy day it will be when they all go home and Europe, with the help of America, is freed from the Nazi horror.

"As I write, I can hear a German plane flying on us!

"Yours very gratefully,

At the risk of offending the Punxsutawney groundhog, which reputedly saw its shadow February 2nd, thereby proclaiming six weeks more of real winter weather, we call attention to the fact that the sun shone resplendently the past three days and the mercury hovered around the forty mark today, with most of the snow and ice having disappeared from the borough.

Contributions received the past couple of days for two families made destitute by Tuesday's fires in the county, show that people of the community are not so busy with war appeals that they can not give generously to charities at home.

The capable cast of "Ah! Wilderness" merited the applause which marked the curtain's fall on the final act of a successful play last night at the Woman's Club. Those who attend this evening have a real treat in store.

Venison went out of season Wednesday. Hereafter any person with venison procured last deer season in their possession, will be subject to a fine of $50. Oh dear!

Day by day the Greek and British "offensive" becomes more and more so to the Italians.

T-H-O-U-G-H-T-S

Woe unto the world because of offences: for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!—Matthew 18:7.

A Washington Daybook

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—No laboratory researcher ever kept his eye glued on the microscopic gyrations of an algae with greater intensity than that with which Washington officialdom watches what goes on in the way of propaganda in South and Central America.

Authoritative reports in diplomatic circles here say some of the republics south of the Rio Grande are up on their hind legs, fighting mad, about anti-American material.

If you want to keep up with this situation, pay particular attention for a while to what effect, if any, the new wave of Spanish Falangist activities will have in the 19 Spanish-speaking republics (in Brazil, they speak Portuguese, you know).

In Several Countries

UNDER orders from Madrid, officials here say, Spanish Falangists have spread out like a duck-pond during a cloudburst in several countries. This wouldn't be such a worrisome mote in the official eye here if there weren't also signs, they say, that the Falangists will act as "fronts" for Nazis and Fascists.

Under a decree issued by General Franco, chief of the Spanish state, a "Hispanic council" has been set up, officials say, with the object of recreating Spain's ancient glory and establishing Madrid as "the axis of the Spanish speaking world."

A new decree, copies of which have just been received here, designates Serrano Suner, foreign minister, chief of the Falange and outspoken advocate of close cooperation with the Axis powers, as head of that council.

Members of this "Hispanic council," in addition to high ranking officials in Spain, include the Spanish ambassadors to Argentina, Cuba, Chile, Mexico and Peru and the Spanish consul general in Manila.

The decree specifies that "headquarters for the American branch" will be established in one of the chief cities of South and Central America. So far, it is not reported here what city will be selected.

See Fertile Field

THESE same officials here say that the Americas, south of the border, are considered fertile ground for Falangist spade work, because so many of their citizens were born in Spain or are only a generation or two removed from there and are presumed to be sympathetic to Spanish ambitions. That, of course, remains to be seen.

As a starter in combatting propaganda, President Batista has issued decrees which dissolve all organizations with international connections engaged in propaganda against Cuba, provide for deportation of all foreigners engaged in anti-democratic activities, prohibit flags, insignia, anthems and the salutes of totalitarian regimes and impose censorship on totalitarian propaganda by mail, telegraph and radio.

YEARS AGO IN WARREN

Interesting Items Taken From the Warren Evening Times

In 1921

The supervisors of roads and highways of Glade township, Peter Sorenson, D. M. Hazeltine and H. S. Hoag, have filed a petition with Prothonotary C. A. Clark, which will be presented to Judge Lindsey at the next term of court for permission to increase the millage of the township from 10 to 15 mills.

The county commissioners announced this morning that they would issue the $750,000 of road bonds, which were authorized in 1919 as soon as they receive bids which are low enough to warrant them building proposed highways.

The retail price of gasoline in Warren is 31 cents per gallon and the wholesale price is 25 cents in carload lots. It is interesting to note that during 1891-2-3, the wholesale price ranged from 4 to 7 cents per gallon. At that time, however, there were no automobiles and the demand was light.

More than $100,000 worth of automobiles and trucks will be exhibited at the annual show of the Warren Automobile Trade Association to be held in the Overland-Warren Garage February 23-26.

Another 50 cent reduction in the quotation for Pennsylvania crude today makes the price $3.75.

Only 1 per cent of the accidents on dry roads involve skidding; on wet roads, the percentage is 27; while on snowy-ice roads, the percentage leaps to 50 per cent.

In 1931

Warren's Yo Yo craze hit a climax Saturday when a contest was held on the stage of Library theatre. Paul Murphy won first prize and was crowned champion Yo Yoer of the borough. Others who won prizes are Robert McKelvey, Tony Russo, Willis Clark, Seraphin Gigliotti, Charles Robinson and Glenn Greene.

They hung out the "Standing Room Only" sign at the First Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon when the Penn-York Symphony Orchestra appeared in its first concert in Warren.

Invitations have been issued to Masons and their ladies in Warren, Jamestown, Corry, Kane, Coudersport and Titusville for a George Washington ball to be held this week at the Woman's Club.

Miss Jean Robertson will have a book review on Bach for the regular Philomel meeting on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Fressel will entertain the members of the Shakespeare Club tomorrow with dinner and program at the Woman's Club.

During the first 10 months of 1940, 27,360 persons were killed in traffic accidents. This figure is an increase of 6 per cent over the same period of 1939.

It is estimated that one-twentieth of the nation's freight moves over the highways.

• STORIES IN STAMPS

Capital of Inca Empire Was Located in Ecuador

QUITO, capital of the republic of Ecuador, pictured on the map stamp above, has been one of the most important cities of South America for centuries. Before the Spanish conquest, Quito was the capital of the vast Inca empire. Under Spanish dominion, it became a cultural and art center of the New World.

The equator, from which Ecuador derives its name, crosses the republic near the capital, but the altitude of the city makes its climate temperate. Most of the cultivated area of the country lies in a high plateau between two ranges of the Andes.

Construction of the railroad between Quito and Guayaquil, the principal seaport, was one of the world's greatest feats of engineering. At one point, trains ascend 2900 feet in five minutes, along a zig-zag road cut in the mountainside.

Ecuador lies between Colombia, of which it was once a part, and Peru. Eastern boundaries are still in dispute.

The country is rich in undeveloped mineral resources. Agricultural products include cereals, fruits, cocoa and coffee.

The "SO CALLED" COMMON COLD

We again run up against "Lowered Resistance" when discussing "Colds."

It can not be emphasized too strongly that healthy, full-blooded bodies stand the best chance of keeping free of colds and influenza If run-down and susceptible to frequent colds, see your physician There may be some drain on your system that can be quickly and easily overcome.

When colds are prevalent, build yourself up by resting at least eight hours every night; eat regularly and keep the system open, drink plenty of water—and keep away from crowds and people who have colds.

Should you contract a severe cold, stay in bed, and should you have a temperature, consult your doctor.

ALONG CAME CINDERELLA

By VIVIEN GREY

YESTERDAY: This is the third meeting between Roger Cosgrave, a young man of wealth, and Lovely Daye, girl of the New York tenements. Swept along by an emotion he cannot master, Roger has forgotten his fiancee, Emily Perry, and has driven Lovely up to a cottage not far from his estate And now they are there, Roger finds he suddenly can think of other things than Lovely Of food, for example.

Chapter Eight

Alone At Last

ROGER was speaking:

"Food, beautiful lady!"

There was warmed canned corned beef hash, canned peas crackers from a package. Canned peaches, great golden disks Small cookies and coffee.

Afterwards in the softly lighted living room Lovely found in Roger's arms and lips a fervent, beautifully tender passion.

They talked in little scraps.

"I'm foolish about you, darling," Roger murmured, his lips against the bright gold of her hair. "I've lost all sense of everything else"

Lovely smiled Her fingers reached up to brush his face.

"It's such nice foolishness, though," she said softly.

"What are we going to do about it?" He was thinking of Emily His diamond she was wearing Their marriage scheduled in less than a month.

'Must we do anything?"

Roger let it go at that. The path that led into the future was a suddenly confused thing where two days ago it had been plain and clear, with Emily walking it beside him

He looked at his watch

"It's another day, dear! Four! You've missed your beauty sleep Though Heaven knows what you'd do with any more beauty! Better turn in now Pick your own bedroom' He hesitated a moment, then. "You're not afraid of being here alone?"

Lovely looked a trace startled.

"Alone? Afraid? No, of course not But," she hesitated, "is this all there is, Galahad? Isn't there any more?"

Roger swept her against his heart and held her there tightly.

"I'm no Galahad," he said kissing her fiercely. "It's you I'm thinking of. I've got to I feel that way about you."

And Lovely left alone was a little startled by the turn of events.

Roger, driving down the hill toward his father's big house, was thoroughly shaken.

He tried to face the situation he discovered himself in and found it too startling for any calm solution

He was engaged to marry Emily. The invitations for the wedding were all but out. Emily had selected her attendants, he his ushers and best man Their parents lived on nearby estates and had been friends for years. Emily was a fine sweet girl. Thought of ever hurting her wrung his heart

Yet there was Lovely.

Lovely! Like a hot sweet flame in his veins. Like a thread of bright gold running through all the pattern of his thinking. Like hands clinging to his heart with never to be forgotten tenderness. Like a haunting refrain singing over and over again in his being

Could he marry Emily, go through the ceremony before him with Lovely so imprinted on his heart?

He swung his car into place in the garage and then started up the side steps. Daylight was struggling through dawn mist

A figure rose like a pale ghost from the shadows of the top step

"Roger!"

"Emily!" She was like a wraith here in the strange half-light of dawn, still in her long sweeping chiffon party dress 'Emily what are you doing here?" Her hands were icy in his

"Oh, Roger!" Terrific let down in her voice. "Forgive me, dear! I had to do it! I knew something was wrong. I could feel it tonight And then when you left I watched and saw your car turn toward the city instead of home! I felt as if something terrible was going to happen. I had to come here and wait"

'Silly little baby!" Gathering her in his arms 'It's damp. You'll catch your death!'

"Oh, Roger, to have you back safe and the same'" Her voice trembled. She was all but crying with a sort of hurt joy "I have been silly! Tell me, darling, I have"

"You have, sweet Very silly to spend one precious little minute of your time worrying about me' He was taking her into the house, leading her up the stairs. At the door of a guest room he stopped

"Go in and get comfy and sleep, little thing' He kissed the lips she lifted to him with an innocent gesture. He could kiss her It was like kissing a child. It left no imprint on his soul as Lovely's lips flaming under his, had They had burned to the very heart of his being. Their mark was seared unforgettably deep within him

As Roger undressed he saw the collar of his shirt was lipstick marked Lovely's of course Emily evidently hadn't noticed. Nor had she asked him where he had been.

Peace Again

MARCIA Cosgrave was not surprised to find Emily with them next morning Emily had always been like one of their family.

'I put Emily to bed here last night," Roger said as they sat at late breakfast "No reason for her going home."

"I'm glad you did darling' Marcia's brilliant smile included both young people. "I've always liked having Emily aoout'

"But Roger, my pet! How carelessly you handle my reputation!" Emily laughed across at Roger. Here in the heart of Roger's home her sense of well being returned. All was right with her world.

You put me to bed'"

"All right' All right if you're a stickler for details' I took you to the guest room door then"

"That does sound a little better, Roger, but nothing anyone could say would change your father's or my feeling about Emily." Marcia was rising "I'll leave you two love birds now Must go for a fitting for the most important dress I've ever had in my life—the one for your wedding, darlings'" She bent to kiss Emily as she passed.

A strange jagged little silence held Roger and Emily after she had gone

"Her dress for our wedding' Oh, Roger!" Emily broke the silence, her voice lighted glamorously.

Roger lighted a cigaret and gave it to her He became intensely concerned then, lighting one for himself He tried to smile when finally he turned to her

"I suppose I'd better go now,' Emily said finally She knew her family would not be concerned about her She often stayed with the Cosgraves. She looked up expecting Roger to object and have some plan for a pleasant day together But he said

"I'll take you, Emily"

It was only a short drive Mrs. Perry insisted Roger stay for lunch She laughed brightly as she watched him move restlessly about.

"Lucky your weddings only three weeks off, Roger You're nervous as a cat in a strange garret I don't believe you could hold out any longer."

Mrs Perry and her husband were pleased with Emily's choice. Every thing about the match seemed perfect from every point of view.

Roger was nervous and uneasy. Lovely's face kept coming between him and Emily He scarcely touched his food He was anxious to know what was going on in the cottage on Mt. Airy.

Mrs Perry's amusement was of a particular happy kind as she watched him

'Love is like that!" she said.

But Emily was solemn as she said goodbye to Roger

"You'll be here this evening?" she asked wistfully "Marie's giving the party for us, you know. You're supposed to be there and with me!' She tried to laugh a little on the last but even Roger, preoccupied as he was, noticed what pitiful laughter it was

"I won't fail you, Emily," he said

Back To Love

AND Roger, driving up Mt Airy Road toward the cottage, swore to himself that he meant what he had just said to Emily.

He would go to the cottage, get Lovely and take her back to her sister's He would give her enough money to ease things for quite a while And that would be that

Then he was turning in the drive of the cottage. Stopping the car Before he was out the door of the house swung open

Lovely was framed there Lovely! His heart seemed to wake and live once more He was aware of only one emotion—wanting Lovely Daye.

The cottage was neat Lovely had washed the dishes they had used the night before and put everything in order.

"I don't know why I did" Her laughter was a rich thing, bubbling in her throat "Things like that never interested me before."

"Perhaps," he had swept her to his heart and was looking down at her with fondness, "that's because this was Granny Hale's cottage, my maternal grandmother's. She was like that Neat. Orderly. She left this to me'

"I suppose people are like that sometimes,' Lovely said thoughtfully. 'I mean they live afterward in what they've been while they were here'

'Everyone is You start something with your life and it goes on and on like the ever enlarging circles that follow dropping a peoble into water'

Lovely grinned ruefully

'Swell thought that I mean especially about our mistakes. Which I make plenty of"

The last surprised Roger He noticed something strange and different about her suddenly Her body that seemed to have been fashioned for love all luring curves and subtle suggestion was taut and resisting even though her eyes smiled and her lips curved in the shape of kisses

"Meaning, beautiful" Roger suggested

"You You're another one of my mistakes'

He felt his heart start uncomfortably There were little sparks of fire beyond the strange laughter of her eyes It was a new mood to him Beautiful Maddening But puzzling

'I don't understand" he said She put her arms away.

Method of Obtaining Certificates Of Birth Would Be Simplified By Bill Proposed By Warren Senator

Native Pennsylvanians who were born prior to 1906 and who now having difficulty proving it may get some help from the general assembly if bills now pending are favorably received One of these bills which has been introduced in the state senate was presented by Senator Leroy Chapman of Warren according to an Associated Press dispatch from Harrisburg.

Altogether, three bills have been introduced in the house and one in the senate to simplify the procedure of establishing proof of birth and the issuance of certificates which have become increasingly important because of the present national emergency

The Bureau of Vital Statistics began recording births and deaths on a statewide basis in 1906 the year of its creation Before that time an act of 1893 provided for the records to be filed with orphans courts in 67 county seats

Tom F Williams but an director, said today he would appear before a senate committee Monday or Tuesday to discuss the measure introduced by Senator Chapman

The bill calls for county officials to turn over to the department the records they have kept and outlines the duties of the department in regard to accepting affidavits testifying to births not recorded

The thing that creates the bottleneck in issuing certificates Williams said is that either the record is not here or else the applicant has changed his name We cannot issue a birth certificate unless we have justification for doing so

Changes of name he pointed out have been frequent and the county records are far from complete as a result With the exception of World War veterans there are few birth records prior to 1906

At present Williams disclosed the department is following the procedure of the Federal Bureau of Census and other Washington departments in requiring documentary evidence as well as affidavits before issuing a certificate

Senator Chapman's measure would require the department to accept a statement from the applicant and sworn to by the father or mother a near relative or two other persons having actual knowledge of the birth, as sufficient proof

Another by Reps John L Boney and Theodore Komorofski Luzerne Democrats would require the department to set up a special file of birth before 1906 that could be verified by affidavits

Williams said he would not make public his views on the pending legislation or his own proposals until after he had appeared before the senate committee He indicated however that he felt an applicant should be required to furnish proof sufficient to protect both himself and the department and to satisfy federal requirements

National defense preparations resulting both in increased employment and more stringent regulations by private industry and the government in the matter of citizenship have sent requests for birth certificates soaring

Williams estimated that 2,000 applications a day are sent to the department and added that the office force has been working from early mornings to late at night for the last six months to keep up.

Knitters' Benefit Is Very Successful

The Bundles for Britain knitters tea held at the Trinity Memorial Episcopal parish house Thursday afternoon under the chairmanship of Mrs. Allen Carter proved most successful from every viewpoint

There were 48 women in attendance for the afternoon and a total of 57 squares completed for an afghan, with many other blocks started The tea also netted the sum of $28.50 with which to purchase afghan wool for the next meeting.

To conclude tea was served by Mrs. Carter and her committee, with Mrs Clarence Beckley and Mrs. R. S Gibb at the tea table

A cordial invitation is extended by the workers to anyone interested in joining another knitters' session next Thursday at the parish house.

First Night of Players' Comedy Is Received With Enthusiasm; Perfection in Cast and Set

The tribulations which beset daily family life in any home where there are adolescents are aptly set forth in the Eugene O'Neill play "Ah, Wilderness!" and the Warren Players cast seen in its production last night at the Woman's Club turned in a most creditable performance.

It is a difficult play for amateur presentation, one that requires a very fine balance between the seriousness that can easily be turned into comedy and the amusing incidents that yet have their tragic significance

It is a family play in the true meaning of the term, accounting for its instant appeal to anyone who has ever been a part of such a household as that represented by the Nat Miller family.

10TH ANNIVERSARY

While "Ah Wilderness!" is officially listed on the printed programs as the 27th public production of the Warren Players last night's performance also marked the tenth anniversary of the organization's first public play "Her Husband's Wife" by A. E Thomas.

Mary Clark Hubley has called upon every resource available to round out the performance of a large cast and each role is given the careful consideration that is necessary to a finished show. Each of the fifteen players has done his best with the characterization assigned him, from the leads to the bits.

Carrying the burden of the action are Frank Cruickshank, Milliken Kopp, Jack MacDonald and Mac Corah the last named substituting last Saturday when [illegible] Cunningham became ill and was forced to withdraw from the cast.

Leon Jones, Patsy and Bill McClure round out the Miller family, with Mrs Nelson Johnson as Aunt Lily, Mac Kinander and Romaine Meacham as the McCombers, Roger Webster Mary Clark Hubley, Fern Mostert, Leo Driscoll and Homer Fleming

Locale of the action demands numerous scene changes and it has been an ambitious assignment for Albert Dold and Lewis Jamieson. Costuming and properties have been additional tasks that have been accomplished with ingenuity.

To occupy the time needed for shifting sets, patrons were entertained with string music by the Young Troubadours of North Warren.

The play will be given its second performance this evening, starting at 8 30 o'clock, and reservations may still be made at the door or by calling the Players' box office 776 The evening will be one well spent and highly recommended by those attending first night.

"WILL YOU PLUG MY ROASTER IN AGAIN—I WANT TO USE THE WASHING MACHINE ON MY OUTLET"

The woman who has electricity in her home has at her command a legion of servants. Whatever the job—washing, cleaning, cooking—there's a skilled electrical helper ready to go to work for her. But remember—these modern electrical servants serve you best when your home is adequately wired. Adequate wiring assures good lighting in each room for eye comfort and eye health. It means enough electric outlets for all the lamps and appliances in the home, light switches properly arranged throughout the house for safety and convenience. Consult your Electrical Contractor on the low-cost of adequate wiring. He will prove to you that Adequate Wiring serves and saves.

This is the tenth of a series of 12 articles on the new bidding rules in the 1941 Culbertson System.

BY WM. E. McKENNEY
America's Card Authority

In the 1941 Culbertson System, a double of an opening no trump bid, or of any other no trump bid, is defined as strictly a "business" double. Actually, this does not represent a great change, because players have always been urged to pass their partner's double of one no trump, with a fairly good hand, but the average player was far too likely to treat a double of one no trump exactly as he would a double of a suit bid, and take it out in his longest suit when he had a few queens and jacks in his hand but not much else.

The 1941 rule may impress on people that partner's double of one no trump should usually be passed even when they have nothing more than a few fillers in three or four suits.

East's pass in today's hand would not be justified by the old rule, which required about one and one-half honor tricks, but his pass was proper and his side got the best possible result from it.

West opened the ten of spades, South won. South then entered dummy with the heart king, and led a low diamond, finessing his ten and losing to West's king.

West led the queen of hearts, which was allowed to win, but South took the next heart trick. Then, hoping to find West with the ace of diamonds alone, South led a low diamond, and this put East in the lead.

A spade lead by East trapped South's king, and the only trick South could get after that was the club ace, so that he went down 500 points. All that East-West could have scored playing the hand themselves was 90 to 140 points.

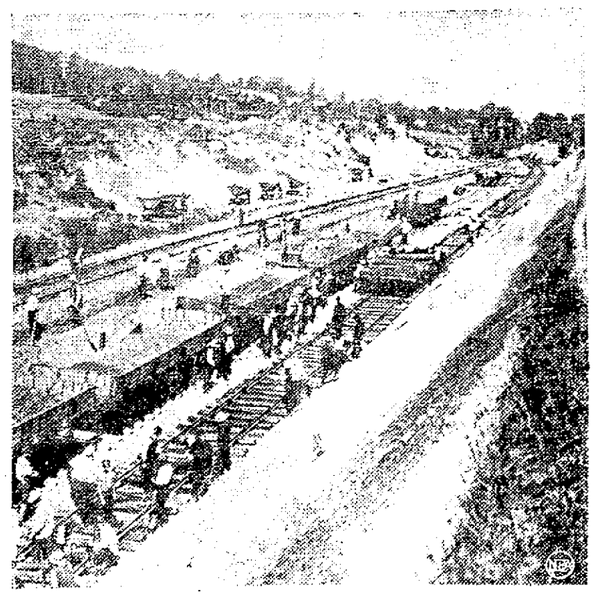
Bulgarian Railroads Threatened



Reports persist that Britain has told Bulgaria the Royal Air Force will blast lines of communication in that little country if German forces start moving south on its railroads. Photo shows repair work on one of the few Bulgarian roads

TIMES TOPICS

TAX OFFICE OPEN
It was announced today by R. S. Thompson, county personal property tax clerk, that his office in the court house will be open all day Saturday for the purpose of receiving returns from residents of Warren county. Saturday is the last day to file the returns.

PLAN "MAINE DAY"
The Lewis M. Clark Camp and Auxiliary, United Spanish War Veterans, will celebrate "Maine Day" with a supper and meeting at seven o'clock Monday evening at the Legion Home. After the serving, members and friends will be entertained with a program.

MANY HAVE FLU
A number of Sheffield residents are reported ill or recovering from severe attacks of influenza. Miss Twila Reed has recovered sufficiently to return to school and Mrs. F. O. Reed is reported getting along nicely. Mrs. I. E. Rossell, wife of the Methodist pastor at that place, is also among those said to have been ill.

RELIEF PAYMENTS
Direct relief payments made to needy Warren countians during the week ended yesterday show a decrease of $47 from those of the previous week, according to State Treasurer F. Clair Ross. Payments for the week totaled $1,054, which was $1,597 lower than those of the comparable week of last year.

LOCAL CONTRACT
In an Associated Press dispatch from Washington today, the War Department announced that a contract for supplying superheaters at a cost of $6,825 has been awarded to the Struthers-Wells Company here. The dispatch also stated that the Raymond Manufacturing Company at Corry has been awarded a contract for steel wire clamps to cost $3,745.

FATALLY BURNED
Burned in a vain attempt to save the life of his sister, Harold Baker, 13, of Oil City, was in a critical condition at Oil City Hospital today. Explosion of a small can of oil set fire to the clothing of seven-year-old Catherine Baker yesterday. In spite of her brother's efforts to beat out the flames, she was fatally burned. Another sister, Audine, 17, said the oil was ignited by a hot coal which dropped from a stove in their home.

SPEAKS TO STUDENTS
At a special assembly yesterday afternoon, Warren High School students enjoyed a talk by Richard F. Behrendt, assistant director of the Good Neighbor Forum, Central Y. M. C. A. College. Mr. Behrendt, who was brought to Warren by the Warren Rotary Club Institute of Understanding, spoke on the European situation and United States relations with the Latin American countries.

GARAGE FIRE
The fire department was called to the Waram Motors garage, Pennsylvania avenue, west, at 6:11 o'clock last evening to extinguish a fire in the basement repair room, caused when a motor backfired, setting fire to gasoline and oil. Although there was a hot fire for a few minutes, the firemen soon extinguished the blaze without a great amount of damage. This morning at 11:50 the department received a call to Stone Hill road, near Beech street, where someone mistook a bonfire for a roof fire and called the firemen unnecessarily.

Moore Family Fund Of Times-Mirror Is Increased to $100

The fund which is being raised by the Times-Mirror to give assistance to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moore, whose home near Hemlock was destroyed Tuesday by a fire which took the lives of their two small children, today passed the hundred-dollar mark.

Since yesterday, a total of $46.60 has been reported, bringing the amount received to date to $101.60.

Most of the money received is from donors who prefer to remain anonymous. However, $31.60 was collected by Mike Gotto, local fruit dealer, whose own contribution of $5.00 started the fund. One of the contributions, amounting to $5.00 was from a Bradford man.

Any others who wish to make contributions to this worthy cause may bring or send them to the Times-Mirror office.

LUDLOW SCOUTS AND DADS HOLD ANNUAL DINNER

Hammering away at the theme "America, We Are Grateful," one hundred and fifteen Scouts, Cubs and Dads assembled in their annual Father and Son banquet at Ludlow last night saw thirty Scouts recognized for their advancement, heard their council president describe his first hand observations of the Italian Fascisti and the Hitler youth, paid tribute to a departed brother Scout, bid farewell to a Scoutmaster, and listened to an inspiring address on the subject, "On My Honor." Chairman Walter S. Cox opened the meeting with a statement of appreciation for American freedom and every speaker from beginning to end echoed the theme.

Calvin Hall, Scout Executive, conducted the recognition ceremony for Scout advancement, pointing out that the boys are part of a group of a million and a half Scouts and Cubs, an army of good citizenship in the making, while H. L. Banghart, Council president, contrasted Scouting with youth movements abroad which he has actually seen.

All Scouts and Cubs stood and repeated the Scout oath in memory of George Begenyi, Life Scout of Ludlow's Explorer Troop, who died a few months ago. Carl M. Jones, Scoutmaster of Troop 43, who is leaving Ludlow, was commended publicly for his eight years of whole-hearted conscientious service to the boys and the community, of Ludlow, and his successor, Julius Swanson, was introduced, as was Emil Nelson, Ludlow's new Cubmaster.

Rev. Walter J. Thoms, of Kane, as principal speaker of the evening, described his experience as a Scout of thirty years ago and then in an interesting and forceful way defined the meaning of "Honor." The invocation was pronounced by Rev. C. E. Lundgren and the benediction by Rev. Anthony Groves.

YOUR INCOME TAX

HOW TO AVOID COMMON ERRORS

Fifteen million persons, firms, and corporations, it is estimated, will probably file income tax returns this year. These returns began to trickle in around January 1. Every return for the calendar year 1940 must be in by midnight of March 15. In order to handle the enormous volume of work alone entailed of receiving these returns, the Bureau of Internal Revenue has greatly increased its staff in its several district offices. The experience of former years shows that the Bureau is always swamped with late returns. If taxpayers will file their returns early, they will find that this will be mutually beneficial to them and to the government.

A large number of these returns contain errors which, if not corrected by the audit, would result to the disadvantage of the taxpayer. Many persons pay in more than the amount of the tax due; others fail to take advantage of the personal exemption, the credit allowed for dependents, or deductions from gross income to which they are entitled.

In making out your income tax return, read carefully and study the instructions that accompany the forms on which the tax is computed. If you need more information, it may be obtained at the office of the collector of internal revenue, deputy collector, or an internal revenue agent in charge. When you visit an internal revenue office to get assistance in making out your return, take a copy of your 1939 return with you.

Dragons Ready To Add Emporium To List Of Second Half Victims

If Emporium's Red Devils have an idea that the Dragons will ease up tonight after that hard and successful battle with Bradford Tuesday night, they're likely to be a sorely disappointed crew of youngsters.

The local basketeers are getting close enough to that pennant to see it waving in the breeze and they're taking no chances on being knocked off by some second division club.

To begin with, the Kolpienmen have no reason to hold the Tubers lightly. In their previous meeting this season, Emporium gave our side all it wanted, outscoring them from the field by one goal. Had the Dragons not caged nine out of eleven foul goals, it would have been a sad, sad story.

Tonight's game, therefore, should be another spirited battle, and it may take all of the power the Dragons have to turn back the battlers from the Tube City.

It was not known today whether Dick "Red" Tucker would be in tonight's lineup. The hard-going decrease man has been suffering from a cold for the past week, although he played in the Bradford game and scored the winning bucket. In the event he is on the sidelines, either Don Sharp or Bob Wright will be called on to fill the job.

The balance of the lineup will be as usual with "Jap" Conroy and Johnny Pick at the forwards, Chuck Hoffecker at center and "Sting" Brown at the other guard spot.

A preliminary between the second teams will start at 7:30 and a game between the Thirds and Beaty goes on at 6:30.

Oh Yeah?

Mickey Owen says he'll continue ditch-digging on farm near Springfield, Mo., rather than accept less than $10,000 from Brooklyn Dodgers. The aggressive catcher was sold by St. Louis Cardinals.

Manager Plays Sweet Music As Dorazio Is Primed For Sacrifice

Philadelphia, Feb. 14—(AP)—Gus Dorazio's manager followed precedent today and claimed Joe Louis' heavyweight championship—three days before the Philadelphia fighter battles the Brown Bomber here Monday night.

Exuding confidence and clouds of cigar smoke in a 15-round monologue same distance the fight is scheduled—Joe Martino, the manager, said:

"Just as sure as I'm smoking this 'rope' I have the next heavyweight champion of the world."

Martino is convinced Dorazio's style of fighting out of a crouch—and a newly discovered hard right-hand—is bound to worry Louis.

"It isn't something he's been practicing," he said when reminded that other Louis foes have attempted to crouch. "It's his natural way of fighting, that's all. And his new right's a killer.

"They've been saying Gus isn't the right opponent for Louis. What about Patsy Perroni, Bob Pastor, Arturo Godoy, Al McCoy, Red Burman? They all fought Louis, didn't they?"

"Well!" exploded the voluble little handler. "Look what Gus did with those guys!

"He beat Pastor and McCoy. He lost the decision to Godoy who went 15 rounds with Louis. He knocked Burman down three times but lost. They took four rounds away from Gus when he fought Perroni and he dropped that decision.

"Don't tell me Dorazio isn't as good as those guys!"

Despite the case Martino builds up for the 23-year-old Dorazio, the belief persists that Gus will go the way of the other Louis challengers. It's a question of what round, the "experts" say.

There has been little interest attached to the bout in Philadelphia, although it is the first heavyweight title fight here since the Tunney-Dempsey upset in 1926. Bargain prices of $1.25 to $5.75, however, are expected to fill Convention Hall's 15,000 seats.

Both fighters will arrive here Sunday night, Dorazio from his training camp at Summit, N. J., and Louis from Greenwood Lake, N. Y.

HOPPE ASSURED NO WORSE THAN TIE FOR CROWN

Chicago, Feb. 14.—A couple of old adversaries face each other across the billiard table tonight in a match that may decide the world three-cushion championship.

The last match of the current tournament finds defending champion Willie Hoppe of New York once more tussling with Jake Schaefer of Cleveland for top honors.

A victory for Hoppe will give him the title for the second straight year. The best that Schaefer can do is to tie the silver-haired champion and thus force a playoff tomorrow.

Schaefer rules the balkline cue game but he never has held the three-cushion title. Last year "Young Jake" finished second, Hoppe capturing the championship with an unprecedented run of 20 victories in as many matches.

Hoppe eliminated Jay Bozeman from the championship last night, defeating the fast-shooting Californian, 50 to 35 in 35 innings. It was the champion's 15th victory in 16 starts and assured him a tie for the title. Hoppe took a six-point lead in the first two frames and met every Bozeman challenge to hold an advantage throughout the match.

Schaefer scored a 50 to 29 victory in 53 innings over Allen Hall of Chicago in the other night match to stay in the running for the title. Jake held a 13 point lead at the intermission and at one time had a 46 to 21 edge over Hall.

Welker Cochran of San Francisco and Bozeman will battle for third place honors tonight.

ROOKIE AND ARKY REMAIN UNSIGNED

Pittsburgh, Feb. 14.—(AP)—The Pirates, getting ready for their trip to San Bernardino, Calif., to start training February 24, disclosed that only two players have failed to come to terms for 1941.

The two are Captain Arky Vaughan, veteran shortstop, and Alf Anderson, recruit shortstop who played with Atlanta of the Southern Association last year. There was no indication either would be a holdout.

Olson & Bjers gained on the Commercial league-leading Rich Atlantic Station last night by taking three from O. K. Service while the White Flashers were losing the same number to the National Forge. . . The County News jumped from fourth to third place with three at the expense of the Sherwood Refinery and the West Ridge moved up a place with a like number over the Newell Press. . . Bob Walsh hit 245 for high game and Allen's 569 was top total.

In the Elks Loyal Knights league it was the same old story of another win for the Kirbergers who took three from Beckley's, but the second position New Process won four by forfeit from the Darling Jewelers and gained a game on the leaders. . . The Times-Mirror snatched three from Denny Cochran's Barbers and went from fifth to third place as Harvey & Carey swept its match with Hultman's Tailors. . . Bill Cameron had 222 and 221 games and although he fell down in the third his 570 was best block of the evening.

Last Night's Bouts

Philadelphia—Tommy Forte, 120, Philadelphia, outpointed Small Montana, 115, Los Angeles, former flyweight champion (8).

New Haven, Conn.—Nathan Mann, 189, outpointed Charley Eagle, 180, Waterbury, Conn., (12).

Elizabeth, N. J.—Norman Hurdman, 144, Toronto, outpointed Dave Chacon, 146, Elizabeth (6).

SPORT SCATTERINGS

by Bill Rice

We are probably a bit hasty in saying that if the Dragons get by Johnsonburg Monday night down on the Jay's hardwood they will be "in." A lot depends on tonight's fracas at Bradford, and the Owls can do the Kolpienmen a big favor by knocking off the boys from the Paper City, which should assure the locals no worse than a playoff for the second half. At this writing, Kane is also undefeated, but on the bases of their showing here, that condition probably won't obtain very long. If the Johnnies lose at Bradford and the Dragons come through at Johnsonburg, you can plan on raising the pennant, for the locals will be favored to take care of the Wolves, the Wolverines and the Flying Dutchmen. If the Jays win tonight, and we don't think they will, they have an equal chance of meeting Bradford in the play-off for the North League crown. But before we get into these possibilities, there is the matter of Emporium at Beaty court tonight, and the Dragons are in the habit of taking up one thing at a time.

Informal interviews with the players, themselves, and many of the fans who trekked to Bradford reveal that all were well satisfied with the job done by Bill Burns, but many have echoed the opinion that a two-referee system should be used. Unfortunately, Bill has no more local assignments this season, and is due to appear in Bradford only once more this year. It is hoped that should the Owls and the Dragons square off in the play-off, the Erie official will be one of those chosen to toot the whistle. He keeps the game moving rapidly and does his best to keep body contact at a minimum, which is a big job when one team is using a man-for-man or a modified zone defense against an imitation of "screening." College basketball players admit that the screen is difficult to execute, and that only constant drill on timing develops plays to the point where one can get into the basket without shoving with the shoulder or using the hip. As "Dutch" Dehnert once said, "The only way you can really screen is by using every part of your body and a blind referee."

And speaking of "Dutch," this district is going to get a fleeting glimpse of big-time basketball once more when the Renaissance, who used to put on an annual show here against the HyVis and the Penns, meet the Philadelphia Sphas at Kane on Tuesday, March 4. The Rens will be playing through the East at that time and the Philadelphia Hebrews have an open date on their American League schedule which will permit them to clash on the hilltop court. The Sphas started this half of the loop by dropping four straight, but annexed the first semester fairly easily, with Inky Lautman and Irv Torgoff setting the pace. Last Sunday they got back into their winning ways with a 40-32 win over the New York Jewells. The Kane-Mt. Jewett scholastic clash, originally scheduled for March 4, has been moved up to March 3, to give the schoolboys of those institutions and many others in District Nine a chance to see the big boys in action.

YEARS AGO IN SPORT

February 14, 1921—On last night's boxing card, K. O. Carroll, of Jamestown, substituted for Johnny Ruland, of St. Paul, and knocked out Duffy Wilbur, of Erie, in the second round with a body punch which many thought was low, but which Referee Al Martin claimed was legal. Bat Nelson, also of Jamestown, scored a t. k. o. over Knopf in the third, and the Brindis boys, at 65 pounds, fought to a draw. Cyclone Walters, of Irvine, and Joe Bonadei, met in the other scrap also a draw.

February 14, 1931—Scoring only three field goals, the Blue and White basketball team was outclassed at Erie last night, losing to Academy, 52-12. Shreck ran up 20 points for the Lions.

CORNPLANTER WINS IN PISTOL WHEEL

With Bert Werlin firing a neat 291, followed by Paul Yagge with 282, the Cornplanter pistol team won over the borough police and the postoffice in the regular Warren Revolver League match last night.

Chief of Police Hashn was third high with 276.

MERCHANTS COP BUT PATTERSON FIVE IS DOWNED

The Penn Merchants and the Pattersons journeyed to Celoron last night, the former winning the preliminary from the City Cabs of Jamestown, 54-40, and the latter being topped by the Jamestown Radio Research team, 41-29 in the main game.

A big first half kept the Pattersons out of the ball game, although they made a brave attempt in the last two periods. "Tink" Wolfe was the most consistent scorer, annexing 13 points.

In the prelim Ken Christiansen, Warnie Check and Dick Driscoll were hot enough to outscore the opposition's efforts.

POSTAL MATCHES GO TO IRVINE RIFLERS

The Irvine Rifle Club has added two more postal matches to its season's victories, topping Palmyra in a three-position affair, 2859 to 2769, and copping a two-position shoot from Rochester, 1941 to 1871. It was the third straight win over Rochester.

Schultz with 292 and Mrs. Lacy with 291 were the leaders against Palmyra and Lindstrom and Brown with 194's and Schultz and Sleeman with 193's paced the victory over Rochester.

FLEMING TO JUDGE PENN STATE MEET

Homer W. Fleming, coach of the state gymnastic champions, will leave tomorrow morning for State College, where he has been asked to judge a gym meet between Penn State and University of Chicago and another between the Nittany freshmen and the Germantown Y. M. C. A.

The Warren high mentor, who guided the 1940 gym team to the local school's first state championship, will take ten varsity men along with him to witness the collegiate meet.

Old Hatteras lighthouse, N. C., was built a mile from high water in 1870; now the tides come within a few yards of its base.

PLAYING AT ELKS

Clarence "Sunshine" Anderson, one of the nation's best known pocket billiard trick shot experts and a former resident of Kane, will start his exhibition at the Elks club tonight at ten o'clock.

Following the exhibition of trick shots, Anderson will give instruction in the rudiments of the game and some of the finer points.

NEW ORLEANS OPEN IS UNDERWAY TODAY

New Orleans, Feb. 14—(AP)—The paragons of golf start hostilities today in the $5,000 New Orleans open with only one thing fairly certain about the outcome—whoever beats Ben Hogan will take the $1,200 first prize, or come mighty close to it.

The Texan, with the big wallop has finished in the money in the past 38 medal tournaments he has entered. Except for the 1939 National Open he has cashed in on his last 55 medal efforts.

Hogan's $10,655 topped individual winnings in 1940 by more than $1,000 over the earnings of second-place Byron Nelson, and his average of 70.65 strokes for 75 competitive rounds was the best in the business. This season his average is 69.25 for 22 rounds.

37 POINTS SCORED BY MISS BEICHNER

The Jamestown "Y" Toppers were completely outclassed last night on their own court when Warren's 21 Club girls trounced them, 71-14.

Phyllis Beichner led the attack with 37 points and Miss Mitchell and Miss Carlson contributed 20 and 14, respectively. Warren's guards, L. Mitchell, Boyd and Newark, held the Jamestowners to the minimum.

On Monday the locals will meet East Hickory.

The "Pioneer Woman" statue at Ponca City, Okla., has been visited by more than 350,000 persons since its erection in 1930.

Seek To Extend W. P. A. Sewing

threatened lay-off, conferred with Governor James yesterday and obtained from him a written guarantee that the state would contribute 25 per cent of over-all WPA costs.

The extension would permit the state and the WPA to get together on terms of a new sewing project agreement and submit it to Washington officials in time to prevent interruption of the women's jobs.

There was no indication today, however, that such an agreement was near and comment by the WPA on the governor's proposal was lacking.

The WPA originally announced the sewing projects would be discontinued because the state refused to pay its quarter share of the costs. Governor James answered the state should not be required to pay this proportion of the sewing projects cost because contributions to other WPA projects offset the deficiency.

After a two and one-half hour conference with the governor, Shaw said James described a compromise WPA proposal as "a pig in a poke" because the state would never know "where it stood."

Word was received here from Pittsburgh today that John Nagurney, of Sheffield, who left here last Monday as a replacement on Local Board No. 2's January quota, was among 84 western Pennsylvanians sent to Fort Meade, Md., yesterday after passing the required examinations.

Rome Claims British Parachutists Foiled; Greeks Gain Ground

before the British were captured.

There was no indication of the size of the invading force supposed to have taken a page from the Axis' own blitzkrieg book. Presumably, however, it was small.

British military sources in London, saying any invasion of Italy's home soil was news to them, hinted that the parachutists might merely have been fliers who bailed out of a downed bomber.

In Berlin, the German High Command added another armed British merchantman to the list of 13 cargo-laden ships it said yesterday had been sunk in an attack on an Atlantic convoy. It placed total tonnage of the 14 ships at about 82,000.

In Rome, the Fascist war bulletin said Nazi planes had hammered "intensely" again at British bases in Libya and had joined Italian bombers in another attack on Malta, Britain's mid-Mediterranean air and naval station.

Aid Bill Backers Confident

effect on the French troops under General Weygand in North Africa.

These senators felt that the bill should hold out the tacit promise that Weygand could get supplies here if he decided to cast his lot with the British. They also pointed out that the Senate foreign relations committee had weighed the Willkie proposal carefully and decided against it.

The bill, approved 15 to 8 by the foreign relations committee yesterday, will go to the floor for debate Monday. Democratic Leader Barkley told reporters "two weeks should be ample time for discussion." He said there is no doubt that the bill would go through "by a vote of two-to-one at least."

In formally reporting the House-approved legislation without major change, the foreign relations committee majority said it was a "practical safeguard aimed at keeping us out of the war" rather than " a war measure."

Minority members of the committee were consulting today over whether to submit a report setting forth their reasons for opposing the legislation. They made it clear, however, that they would not consume undue time in the Senate debate, but merely would state their case and make a final effort on the floor to attach restrictive amendments to the bill.

In his testimony before the foreign relations committee Tuesday, Willkie appealed to the Democratic majority to make concessions in the interest of national unity.

The 1940 Republican presidential candidate recommended specially that congress name Britain, China and Greece as the original beneficiaries of the legislation and add any other countries deemed necessary later on.

One "half way" amendment tentatively suggested would stipulate that the president could lease, lend or transfer war materials only to countries which had been invaded or were threatened with invasion. The present language of the bill empowers the president to take such action in the case of any nation whose defense he considers vital to the defense of the United States.

This amendment proposal, however, drew the objections which used the arguments of Weygand's army.

Barkley told reporters he believed the bill is a good one as it stands now and said he saw no present possibility of further amendment.

Penn'a National Guard Commanding General Pleased With Response

"The type of young man that has chosen to prepare himself for a personal share in the defense of the nation has been the highest," General Martin said.

"Of course, physical examinations next week will force an unpredictable number of men to drop out but the strength of the guard is most encouraging.

"On induction day we will have 13,000 officers and men reporting for duty."

This total will include all the division units and the 104th cavalry.

After induction, the soldiers will remain at their home stations for at least a week, reporting to the armories on army schedules. After physical examinations the men will spend most of their time in preliminary training and refurbishing equipment.

The first outfit scheduled to arrive in camp, with the exception of special units already here to prepare for the troops, are the special troops of the division—policemen, radio and telephone operators and other specialists—and the 103rd Quartermaster regiment—the fellows who handle the supplies. These units are to arrive Feb. 24.

All the other 28th division outfits are to move into camp on minute-to-minute schedules in the following four days.

Awaiting Yugoslav Decision

relations were near the breaking point.)

Diplomats with usually reliable sources of information in government quarters said the Yugoslavs would talk with the Germans about passage of German troops through the railway junction of Nis, Yugoslavia, and thence by rail down the Vardar river valley toward Greece and her vital Aegean seaport, Salonika.

Reports from Sofia said King Boris of Bulgaria might follow the Yugoslavs to Germany today to confer with Hitler.

Observers interpreted an announcement that Nazi-controlled Rumania had agreed to send 160,000 tons of oil to Turkey as an indication that Turkey was not expected to fight to keep the Nazis out of Greece.

These observers said Rumania hardly would be allowed to make such a deal with Turkey if the Germans believed an open conflict with the Turks were likely.

Reports in Sofia said Bulgaria, with Italian and German backing, was making strong diplomatic efforts to obtain from Turkey a pledge to refrain from fighting if Nazi soldiers entered Bulgaria.

Simultaneously, Soviet Russian quarters in the Bulgarian capitol frankly stated that Russia undoubtedly would act to obtain territory from the Turks if the Ankara government should enter the conflict. There were intimations Turkey had been advised to this effect.

Vichy, France, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Chief of State Philippe Petain's special train arrived in Vichy today and the marshal, closely followed by Vice Premier Admiral Jean Darlan, jumped from it with a smile and greetings for officials.

Petain called for the engineer who had piloted the train since the French leader left Vichy Feb. 11 and warmly shook his hand. Then he drove to the Parc hotel.

ment" the monarchy could be restored.

The ex-king was reported in Rome dispatches yesterday to have suffered a heart attack on Wednesday, but to be slightly improved.

Some Spanish royalists long have believed that Generalissimo Francisco Franco intended to reestablish the crown eventually, but there was no way of knowing, even if he had such a purpose, whether he would welcome Alfonso's chosen heir in view of his friendship with Germany and Italy. Prince Juan has served with the British navy and was educated in England.

Announcement of Alfonso's renunciation recalled his statement, when he left Spain in 1931, that "I renounce none of my rights, for, more than my rights, they are the accumulated layers of history for which some day I shall have to render strict account."

Tracy Greenlund Is Appointed Justice Of Peace for Boro

Appointment of Tracy M. Greenlund as justice of the peace for Warren borough was announced here today.

Governor Arthur H. James named Mr. Greenlund to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Clark E. Nelson.

Mr. Greenlund today was completing the necessary papers for taking over the position. He told the Times-Mirror that the location of his office has not been definitely determined.

The new justice of the peace served one year in that position in 1935 when he was appointed by former Governor George H. Earle to fill a vacancy caused by the death of the late Watts Davis.

The board asked members of 15 railroad brotherhoods to postpone the strike at least until March 7, and urged the company's receiver to withhold scheduled wage reductions. Whether the postponement would be effected was uncertain.

The Youngstown (Ohio) Sheet and Tube Company closed down 11 furnaces yesterday, shutting off production of 3,000 to 4,000 tons of steel a day, after 1,000 CIO union workmen walked out. Most of the steel made by the firm was said to go to other concerns which are filling military and naval orders.

At Washington, D. C., where conferences on the Allis-Chalmers strike at Milwaukee have been going on for three days, representatives of the CIO-United Automobile Workers and the management were reported by federal conciliators to be "closer together". About $45,000,000 in defense orders is being held up by the strike, in progress more than three weeks.

In another labor development, CIO President Philip Murray and six of his vice presidents issued a statement at Washington that the CIO opposes anti-strike legislation which has been introduced in congress.

Sheffield Girl Held in Theft At Pittsburgh

A Sheffield girl employed as a maid in the home of Mrs. Mary Cox, of Pittsburgh, widow of Steve Cox, sandlot baseball umpire, is said by Detective Thomas Halligan, of Pittsburgh, to have admitted faking a holdup to cover theft of $22.10, according to the Associated Press.

Halligan said Mary Yusko, 19, of Sheffield employed two weeks in the Cox home, had been held for hearing on larceny charges.

Miss Yusko first told detectives that two armed men entered the house while Mrs. Cox was visiting neighbors, blindfolded her and looted Mrs. Cox's bedroom, the detective reported.

SHEFFIELD TWP. SCHOOL BOARD HOLDS MEETING

Sheffield, Feb. 13.—The February meeting of the Sheffield township school board, rescheduled from Monday due to the Rotary lecture presented that night, was held Tuesday evening in the high school with C. H. Whittaker, president, in charge.

T. E. Kirch, appointed at the January meeting to succeed as member of the board Mrs. Anna Mervine, resigned, took the oath of office.

Mrs. Rena Nelson, former teacher in the local school system, was appointed to succeed the late L. May Dunham as teacher of Lincoln school's grade 3.

The contracts for insurance covering the school buildings and property was awarded to the J. C. Keller, H. A. Pinney, and Kay Moore insurance agencies, the same agencies which held last year's contracts.

The State Bureau of Tuberculosis Control informed the board by letter that it will provide tuberculin for use in tests which will shortly be given the high school students. The board sometime previously had applied to Dr. Paul B. Stewart, Warren, chief of the Tuberculin Clinic, for the tuberculin.

Taking of the tests for tuberculosis will not be compulsory for the students, the board announced but added that it is their hope that all of the students will submit to the examination, which will be given by Dr. R. L. Taylor, assisted by Alice Nelson, school nurse.

The incidence of tuberculosis in the local high school is higher than it is in the other high schools of the county, and the board has arranged the tests as a protective measure.

Board members present at the meeting included Mr. Whittaker, Mr. Kirch, J. T. Phillips, Chris Yutze and L. B. Jones. Present also were Wayne Chamberlain, principal of the Lincoln school; L. O. Eisenhauer, principal of the high school, and R. W. Gittings, school music supervisor.

KANE COMES HERE

The Wolverines, winless to date in the North League campaign but who have slowly and steadily improved with each game they have played, will be host Friday night to the Kane Hi Wolves. The preliminary will start at 7 o'clock.

ROTARY MEETING

Nineteen members and guests were present at the regular luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club, held Tuesday noon in Bob's Restaurant. Glen Belknap, vice president, presided.

Guest speaker for the occasion was Rev. James A. Davidson, pastor of the 1st Baptist church, Warren, who related experiences from a 1600-mile bicycle trip through England and western and central Europe which he and Mrs. Davidson made in the early 1930's.
